SUNDAY SCHOOL SESSION CLOSES

Baptists of Fairfax County, Va., Hears Addresses on "Baraca Class."

CONFIRMS EPISCOPALIANS

Bishop Coadjutor Brown Receives Many Alexandria Young Persons Into Episcopal Church.

THE HERALD BUREAU, R. E. Knight & Son, 623-23 King Street.

Alexandria, Va., April 30.—A convention of the Baptist Sunday schools of Fairfax County, which opened yesterday at Beulah Baptist Church, near Franconia, Fairfax County, was concluded today. Delegates from practically all of the Baptist Sunday schools in that county were in attendance.

Rev. J. T. Watts, superintendent of Sunday school work of Richmond, delivered an address today. N. L. Williamson, of this city, spoke on the "Baraca Class," and a paper on teaching was read by Miss Mary Williamson.

At yesterday's session Rev. Eugene B. Jackson, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Rev. O. W. Triplett, pastor of the Second Baptist Church, both of this city, delivered addresses.

R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, will hold its monthly meeting on Monday night in Lee Camp Hall, when plans will be mapped out for its annual memorial day exercises to be held May 24 at the Confederate monument, Prince and Washington streets. The orator for the occasion will be announced later, together with the program of exercises.

Large classes were confirmed today in the three Episcopal churches by Rt. Rev. William Cabell Brown, D. D., bishop coadjutor of Virginia, who also preached at each of the services. He confirmed this morning at Christ Church and in the afternoon at St. Paul's Church and tonight at Grace Church. During his stay here Bishop Brown is the guest of Rev. William J. Morton, rector of Christ Church.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Watkins, 53, wife of John T. Watkins, who conducts a stand in the city market, died this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at her home, 1010 Queen street. Besides her husband she is survived by one son and one daughter.

Dr. Edward A. Gorman, city health officer, who spent the past three weeks on a trip to Cuba and New Orleans, returned home this morning.

Fire in a house in Ballenger's lane, Duke street extended, brought out the fire department at 8 o'clock tonight. The fire was extinguished before the department's arrival.

During the month of May devotions will be held at 8 o'clock every night at St. Mary's Catholic Church. Devotions were opened at that church tonight.

Walter E. Albee opened revival services tonight at 236 King street. They will be continued each night, ending May 14. He spoke tonight on "God's Love." Services in the city market, which were conducted by Rev. J. B. Green, D. D., of Greenwood, S. C., at St. Blackstone, a returned missionary from Africa, preached at the Free Methodist Church. The pulpit at the First Baptist Church tonight was occupied by Adm. W. H. Heift, of the industrial department of the Salvation Army.

A musical tea will be given by the Rector's Aid Society of St. Paul's P. E. Church on Tuesday from 4 until 6 o'clock at Norton Memorial Hall.

WEATHER CONDITION

For the District of Columbia and Maryland, fair. Tuesday partly cloudy, probably becoming unsettled at night; light southerly breeze. For Virginia, fair Monday and probably Tuesday; light southerly winds. The indications are that the weather will be unsettled and probably showery Monday and Tuesday in the region of the Great Lakes and the Ohio Valley. In the New England and Middle Atlantic States fair weather Monday will be followed by increasing cloudiness and probably local showers on Tuesday. In the South Atlantic States the weather will be fair Monday and Tuesday.

WILSON TO VIEW SAFETY SPECIAL

President Will Speed Government Exhibit on Way This Morning.

TO VISIT 200 CITIES

Demonstration of Safety First Idea as Applied by Federal Departments Is Unique.

The Government "Safety-First" special train, consisting of twelve cars filled with exhibits of the inner workings of governmental machinery, designed for the saving of human life and property, will leave the Union Station on its tour of the country at 10 o'clock this morning. President Wilson, members of the Cabinet and other officials prominent in the government service are scheduled to be at the train a little before the hour of departure to give the enterprise their official approval.

Secretary of the Interior Franklin K. Lane is responsible for the idea which sends a quarter of a mile of exhibits to the homes of the people of the United States. Van H. Manning, director of the Bureau of Mines, is the executive officer in charge of the train, with Mortimer Leopold, also of the Bureau of Mines, as assistant.

The departments and bureaus represented are as follows: Interior Department, Bureau of Mines, Reclamation Service, National Parks Service, and Indian Office, Treasury Department, Public Health Service, Coast Guard Service, Department of Agriculture, Forest Service, Weather Bureau, Department of War, Department of the Navy, the Interstate Commerce Commission, and the American Red Cross.

The Safety-First Special will cover 200 cities and towns of importance on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and after that will be taken up by one of the other trunk line railroads and sent over its lines. In this way it is hoped to cover the entire country. The train will proceed directly to Philadelphia, where it will be open for exhibition purposes this afternoon and tomorrow, on Friday and Saturday, May 5 and 6. It will be at Baltimore. On Monday, May 1, the safety first special will be at Frederick, Md.; on Tuesday, May 2, at Hagerstown, Md.
